

Narrabri Gas Project Community Consultative Committee and Advisory Groups

Community Representative Expressions of Interest

A proudly Australian company, Santos is a leading supplier of natural gas, a fuel for the future providing cleaner energy to improve the lives of people in Australia and Asia.

For over 65 years, Santos has been working in partnership with local communities, providing jobs and business opportunities, and safely and sustainably developing Australia's natural gas resources.

On 30 September 2020, the NSW Independent Planning Commission approved the Narrabri Gas Project (NGP) with 134 consent conditions. Forming part of the development consent is the establishment of a Community Consultative Committee (CCC) and Advisory Groups.

These groups provide a forum for open dialogue between Santos, independent experts, key stakeholder groups and the local community.

The Independent Chair of the NGP CCC is inviting nominations from people who are interested in being a member of the following forums:

Community Consultative Committee

Up to 7 community or stakeholder representatives

Biodiversity Advisory Group

2 community representatives

Water Technical Advisory Group

2 representatives from groundwater user organisations and/or landholders

Role requirements

Community representatives must:

- Reside within the Narrabri Local Government Area or are members of a stakeholder group (community, environment, Aboriginal or industry)
- Be actively involved in the local community
- Have knowledge and awareness of the Project and related community interests and concerns

All community representative roles are voluntary, and you will be expected to constructively contribute to approximately four meetings per year and communicate information about the NGP between the committee and the broader community.

How to apply

To apply, download and complete the nomination form from the Narrabri Gas Project website, www.narrabrigasproject.com.au and return it to the Independent Chair, Garry West, via the below contact details. If you require any further information, please contact Garry directly.
