Dear

Narrabri Gas Projects (SSD-6456) Approval of Biodiversity Advisory Group Experts

I refer to your letter of 22 February 2021 nominating three biodiversity experts to represent the scientific community on the Biodiversity Advisory Group, which is required under Condition B50 of the Narrabri Gas Project Development Consent (SSD 6456).

The Department has reviewed the curriculum vitae of the nominees and the advice provided by the Biodiversity, Conservation and Science Directorate (BCS) within the Department regarding the nominees, and is satisfied that all three candidates are suitable.

Accordingly, the Planning Secretary approves the appointment of Dr Stephen Phillips, Dr Patrick Tap, and Mr Isaac Marmott to the Biodiversity Advisory Group.

I can also advise that Ms Samantha Wynn will be the key contact for the BCS for involvement in the advisory group. She can be contacted on

If you wish to discuss the matter further, please contact

Yours sincerely

Stephen O'Donoghue Director
